IMPORTANT NOTICE

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR ELECTRONIC WEEKLY BENEFIT REMITTANCES FOR DELINQUENT EMPLOYERS

You are hereby notified that as of January 1, 2012, any signatory employer who has not fully remitted for all fringe benefits and deductions for work performed through November 2011 pursuant to a Laborers' District Council of the Metropolitan Area of Philadelphia and Vicinity collective bargaining agreement shall remit electronically ACH on a weekly basis or in the alternative, to remit weekly by certified check made payable to the "LDC Delinquency Committee" to a business agent or other Fund designee at the job site.

In addition, any employer who is being sued by the Laborers' District Council of the Metropolitan Area of Philadelphia and Vicinity for a delinquency shall be required to remit electronically ACH on a weekly basis or to a business agent or other Fund designee in the manner described above. Signatory employers who have executed a written settlement agreement approved by the Funds and who are in compliance with their obligations under the settlement agreement and their monthly fringe benefit and deduction obligations are an exception to the foregoing.

The above notice is to enable each signatory contractor with adequate time to address all pre-existing delinquencies. This requirement shall be applied to every signatory contractor.

We appreciate the efforts each of you has made in the past.
